SALT HERRING NEWS.

Several More Vessels Loaded and Ready To Sail.

Capt. Charles Young arrived last night from Bay of Islands, N. F., where he has been superintending the loading of his two vessels, schs. Dauntless and A. E. Whyland with salt herring. He reports not a sign of frost there yet and a fair run of herring. All large and of fine quality.

When he left, herring were very plentiful in the North Arm, while most of the vessels were in the Middle Arm. He said that the vessels which had secured cargoes up to the time he left had been published correctly in the TIMES.

A dispatch from Bay of Islands yesterday stated that schs. Lewis H. Giles, Marguerite and Lizzie M. Stanwood were loaded and ready to sail and schs. Annie M. Parker, George Parker and Arthur V. S. Woodruff would be loaded Saturday.

Mr. Amos Holly of Slade Gorton & Co., returned from a trip to Bay of Islands this morning.

As far as now known the vessels now loaded or on the way are schs. Senator Gardner, Nourmahal, Diana, Smuggler, Dauntless, Bessie M. Devine, Lizzie M. Stanwood, Lewis H. Giles, A. E. Whyland, Marguerite and Atlanta.

Returns Reversed.

From the transcript which the clerk of the ward one caucus sent in to City Hall Tuesday night, it appeared that Charles F. Coffin had 243 votes for councilman and J. Frank Hackett 229. The vote was just the reverse, Mr. Hackett securing 243 votes and Mr. Coffin 229.

Flag at Half-Mast.

Sch. Valkyrie, Capt. Angus Hines, arrived from Grand Bank last night with her flag at half-mast for the loss of two of her crew, as previously published in the TIMES.

THREE OF CREW LEFT.

When Sch. Ella G. King Put Into Southwest Harbor.

Broke Up Trip and Vessel Had To Come Home.

Sch. Ella G. King which arrived yesterday with a small fare of Georges handline cod, was obliged to give up her trip on account of something which is getting altogether too frequent of late.

The schooner went into Southwest Harbor a few days ago and the skipper went up street to sell the 2500 pounds of halibut which the craft had, and on his return found that three of the crew had packed their bags and left.

This left the craft short handed and of course there was nothing left to do but come home.

The captain of the King reports dogfish very plentiful on Brown's bank and only a few squid.

THREE TRIPS THIS SEASON.

Great Record of Sch. Elector, Capt. Clayton Morrissey.

WILL MAKE RECORD STOCK.

Sch. Mabel D. Hines Also Has a Big Fare.

The morning two of the leaders of the salt bank codfishing fleet arrived and both with good fares. The fortunate crafts were sch. Mabel D. Hines, Capt. Charles Rudolph, with 240,000 pounds of salt cod, and sch. Elector, Capt. Clayton Morrissey, with 200,000 pounds.

Capt. Rudolph had a big first trip and this second fare, at the almost fabulous prices which are being paid at present, will be a virtual Klondike which will make for this veteran skipper a season's stock which will be one of the very best. Capt. Rudolph is a familiar and popular figure among our leading skippers.

Capt. Morrissey of the Elector has the exceptional honor of being the only skipper of the salt bank fleet to make a third trip this season, and a three trip season this year, when fish and bait has been so scarce, is an honor, secured but by few skippers even in good times and especially by a skipper so youthful in years and yet so full of ability and who in his few seasons as commander has been accorded a success attained by so few.

Capt. Morrissey has made a phenomenal stock this year and with the stock of this fare added will give him a season's stock unexcelled by a trawl salt banker in the history of the fisheries. There is no need of any flowery words for Capt. "Clate," as his friends call him. They have been sung often. Everybody knows him and all interested financially and otherwise in the fishing industry have for him only words of praise and wishes for continued good fortune.
